E. H. POLLARD, Esq. The Scheme of a Local Hank for this Colony with Branches at the most important places in China, line been in contemplation for a very long period. The local and foreign trade in Hongkong and at the open ports in Chine and Japan has increased so rapidly within the last few yours that additional Banking facilities are felt to be required of Corporations whose land quarters are in England or India and which were formed chiefly with the view of carrying on exchange operations between those countries and China, are scarcely in r position to deal satisfactorily with the localtrado which has become so much more extensive and varied than in former years. This deficiency the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Company will supply, and will in fact assume the same position, with relation to this Colony as the Presidency Banks in India, or the Banks of Australia in their respective localities. The Establishment of a Mint in Hongkong providing an adequate supply of proper currency, will render a local Banking medium essential to appearance of the existing Compraderic system requested to take immediate delivery.

(so far as money is concerned) will also ensure. Banks becoming in course of time the exclusive medium for the transaction of the monetary operations connected with trade. HAVING been favored with some jottings of the meeting held at the Club last Thursday, we give an imperfect report of the pro ceedings below. It will be seen that certain parties object to these being made public, and that the publication or otherwise, was left to the discretion of the editors of the local papers. As for ourselves, we deem it an imparative duty to publish the proceedings, because they not only directly affect the nublic. but they indicate procisely the extraordinary manner busiliess of a public nature is conducted in certain quarters, as well as the consideration extended by the upper class of society, towards the lower. We shall explain purselves in a futuro number, deeming nothing beyond the justification for publishing the report requisite at the present moment.
